LONDON, February 23.

THE laſt Dutch Mail brought the following Particulars of the Diſgrace of the Count Sulkowski, in Letters from Dreſden by the way of Hamburgh.

ON the 5th of February N. S. in the Morning, that Nobleman going as uſual to the Palace to receive the King's Orders, His Poliſh Majeſty ſent him out Word, that he was buſy in his Cloſet. He returned at 11 o'Clock, and received for Anſwer, that the King was with the Queen. About Noon the King ſent for General Bandiſſin to come to Court and dine with him; the General ſent to intreat his Majeſty to excuſe him, becauſe he was indiſpoſed; but the King ſending another Meſſage to him that he would not excuſe him from dining at Court, he repaired thither. When Dinner was over, his Majeſty's Aid de Camp adviſed M. Bandiſſin to ſtay at Court becauſe the King wanted to ſpeak with him; and ſoon after his Majeſty ſent for him to his Preſence and delivered a Paper to him, which he received with reſpect and put into his Pocket, not without ſome Confuſion in his Countenance, becauſe he thought his Majeſty had thereby given him a Quietus for his Offices. The King bidden him him read the Paper, the General no ſooner ſaw that the Order related to the Count Sulkowsky, but was ſo ſurpriſed that he remained for a while as motionleſs as if he had been thunder-ſtruck. It was impoſſible for him to ſtand the Shock it gave him, to ſee the Diſgrace of a Miniſter in ſuch high Favour as he thought Count Sulkowsky. According to the King's Orders, he went and communicated the Paper to the Baron de Lawendahl, Great Marſhal of the Court, who alſo expreſs'd his Surprize. The Baron's Daughter gueſs'd by their Countenances, they were out of Favour; and the rather, becauſe it had been already forefold that it would come to paſs. She went to the Counteſs Sulkowsky, and told her what ſhe thought. The Count, who was preſent, proteſted that he was quite ignorant of the Matter, ſince he had not ſo much as ſeen the King all Day. That Moment a Meſſenger came in to acquaint him, that Baron Lowendahl and General Bandiſſin were come to wait on him The Count Sulkowsky having order'd them to be admitted, he asked them, what were their Commands? adding in the ſame Breath, that he had been informed of an Affair to which he could ſcarce give Credit. That Baron de Lowendahl made Anſwer, that they were come to ſpeak with him from the King, and that they muſt ſpeak with him in private. After the Perſons in the Room were withdrawn, they read the Paper they brought to the Count, which imported, that as he had ſeveral Times forgot his Duty to the King, and eſpecially in a late Inſtance, his Majeſty thought fit to remove him from the Offices he held in his Service; but that he would nevertheleſs continue his Penſion of 6000 Crowns which was annexed to his Title of General. Count Sulkowsky ſaid ſeveral Things, which demonſtrated how much he was ſhock'd with his Diſgrace. The Baron and the General being retired, the Count went to the Caſtle to endeavour to molify the King's Reſentment, and took that Opportunity juſt as his Majeſty was going from the Cloſet to the Queen's Apartment. He fell on his Knees to his Majeſty, ſaid every thing to him that he thought would make his Heart relent, and put him in mind of the Honour which he had from his Childhood of attending his Royal Perſon. The King anſwer'd him ſternly, 'My Reſolution is 'fix'd with regard to you. I ſhall not alter it; but no 'Harm ſhall be done either to you or yours; and go your 'Ways.' The Count reply'd, with ſome Tranſport, Give me Leave, Sir, however, to thank Your Majeſty for all the Favours and Kindneſſes You have heap'd upon me, and permit me alſo to kiſs Your Hand. 'Tis the laſt Favour I beg of You. The King conſented to it. The Count hop'd at the ſame time to ſay ſomething in his own Vindication: But the King interrupted him, ſaying, 'I will 'hear no more, and I order you to withdraw.'

Extract from the VOTES of the Parliament of Great-Britain.

March 3. 1738. A Petition of divers Merchants, Planters, and others, trading to, and intereſted in the Britiſh Plantations in America, on behalf of themſelves and many others, was preſented to the Houſe, and read; ſetting forth, that Application was made to this Houſe, in the Year 1728, againſt the many unjuſt Seizures and Depredations, that had, for ſeveral Years preceeding, been committed by the Spaniards in America upon his Majeſty's Subjects, whilſt they were carrying on their fair and lawful Trade in thoſe Parts; upon which Application, this Houſe came to a Reſolution. 'That from the Peace concluded at Utrecht, in 'the Year 1713, to this time, the Britiſh Trade and Navi'gation, to and from the ſeveral Britiſh Colonies in Ame'rica, has been greatly interrupted by the continual De'predations of the Spaniards, who have ſeized very valua'ble Effects, and unjuſtly taken and made Prizes of great 'Numbers of Britiſh Ships and Veſſels in thoſe Parts, to 'the great Loſs and Damage of the Subjects of this King'dom, and in manifeſt Violation of the Treaties ſubſiſting 'between the two Crowns;' and that this Houſe was pleaſed humbly to addreſs His Majeſty thereupon; and that the Spaniards continuing their Depredations on the Britiſh Subjects, and no Satisfaction having been obtained for thoſe before committed, a farther Application was made to this Houſe in the Year 1730, complaining of the great Interruptions given by the Spaniards to the Trade and Navigation of this Kingdom, and their cruel Treatment of the Britiſh Subjects; and that this Houſe, having again taken this Matter into their Conſideration, and examined into the ſame with the utmoſt Deliberation, came to a Reſolution, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to His Majeſty, 'That 'He will be graciouſly pleaſed to continue His Endeavours 'to prevent the Depredations of the Spaniards for the 'future; to procure full Satisfaction for the Damages al'ready ſuſtained; and to ſecure to the Britiſh Subjects the 'full and uninterrupted Exerciſe of their Trade and Na'vigation, to and from the Britiſh Colonies in America,' which Addreſs was preſented to His Majeſty accordingly; and repreſenting to the Houſe, that the Spaniards have paid ſo little Regard to His Majeſty's moſt gracious Endeavours, that they have continued their Depredations, almoſt ever ſince the Treaty of Seville, and more particularly laſt Year have carried them to a greater Height than ever; they having arbitrarily ſeized ſeveral Ships, with their Effects, belonging to His Majeſty's Subjects on the high Seas, in the deſtined Courſe of their Voyages to and from the Britiſh Colonies, amounting to a very conſiderable Value; and that the Captains or Maſters of ſome of the ſaid Ships were, according to the laſt Advices of the Petitioners, and are (as the Petitioners believe) at this time confin'd by the Spaniards in the Weſt Indies, and the Crews are now in Slavery in Old Spain, where they are moſt inhumanly treated; and that, that cruel Nation make it their Practice to attack and board all Britiſh Merchant Ships they meet with in the American Seas, under pretence of ſearching for Goods, which they deem contraband or not, according to their own arbitrary Will and Pleaſure, contrary to the Law of Nations, and in manifeſt Violation of the Treaties ſubſiſting between the two Crowns, and that by theſe unjuſt and violent Proceedings of the Spaniards, the Trade and Navigation to and from America, is rendered very unſafe and precarious.

Another Petition to the ſame purpoſe, was alſo preſented to the Houſe by ſundry Merchants and Traders of the City of Glaſcow.

A third Petition from the Merchants trading from Leverpoole to the Britiſh Plantations.

And a Fourth Petition was alſo preſented by ſundry Merchants and Traders of the City of Briſtol, further ſetting forth the great Loſſes they have ſuſtained by the Spaniards in their Trade to America, humbly praying for Relief in the Premiſes. Which was referred to the Conſideration of the Committee of the whole Houſe.

A Petition of the Truſtees for ſettling the Colony of Georgia, was read in the Houſe, ſetting forth the great Expences they have been at, in fortifying againſt the Attempts and Threats of the Spaniards againſt that Colony, &c. Praying for ſuch Aſſiſtance as the Houſe ſhall think fit.

Ordered, That the ſaid Petition be referred to the Conſideration of the Committee of the whole Houſe, to whom is referred the Conſideration of the Supply to be granted to to his Majeſty. [To be continued.]

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.

Monday last, the Mayor and Commonalty of this City, attended by the Sheriff and other Officers, waited on the GOVERNOR; and by A. HAMILTON, Esq; Recorder, congratulated him in the following Manner.

SIR,

THE Mayor and Commonalty of the City of Philadelphia, wait upon the Governor, to congratulate him upon his safe Arrival with his Family in this City, where his Presence, as it has been long expected, so it has been much desired: For we have great Reason to expect an Increase of Happiness, under the Administration of a Gentleman, who has upon all Occasions been distinguished for his great Abilities and Integrity, in Discharge of those honourable Imployments he has held with so much Reputation in his Native Country. And as he hath shewn a laudable Zeal upon all Occasions, against any Imposition on his Fellow Subjects, We have therefore just Grounds to hope his Protection to the City of Philadelphia, in the Enjoyment of those Civil and Religious Rights, granted them by the Wisdom and Goodness of our late Honourable Proprietor the Founder of this Province; and which have hitherto been continued to them, under the Government of that great Man's worthy Descendants.

To which the Governor was pleased to return the following ANSWER.

GENTLEMEN,

THE good Opinion you are pleased to entertain of me is very obliging; but as I am conscious of Defects which you are kind enough to overlook, I can only assure you, that what I want in Capacity, shall be supply'd by Affection for the City of Philadelphia; and that every thing shall be done in my Power for the Preservation of those Civil and Religious Rights, which your Honourable Proprietor and his worthy Descendants have granted and continued to you.

Next Morning his Honour set out for New-Castle, to take Possession of his other Government of the Three Lower Counties; attended out of Town by a great Number of Gentlemen on Horseback; and is expected here again this Evening.
